Are there guerrillas in my garden? Contemporary engagements with land which challenge conceptions and perceptions of property

Sue Farran@northumbria.ac.uk

What is property??

‘an Anglo-Norman French variant of Old French propriété, from Latin proprietas, from proprius ‘one’s own, particular’ (Oxford Dictionary)

“A bundle of sticks”?

Or:

“it’s time for a revolution in ideas of how land could be used not for the profit of the few but for the benefit and delight of us all’ John Burnside The Scotsman 29 June 2013, 34

“a battle for resources, a battle against scarcity of land, environmental abuse and wasted opportunities. It is also a fight for freedom of expression and for community cohesion” Reynolds ‘On Guerrilla Gardening’ 2008, 5